The ETERNAL HEAD of the EXPOSITOR is rusticating this week at Bois Blanc Island and Amherstburg, consequently WE, OURSELVES are obliged to take hold of the helm and show the public how the "great and only" should be conducted

It has been noticed by several people of this place that one of our genial bachelor friends has lately been acting in a manner strongly indicative of matrimony. A house has been rented, furniture is being purchased and other marked symptoms are prevalent which lead us to believe that there is a case of this kind developing. There are three or four young business and professional men of this town whom we would advise to stay at home a few days as this might prove contagious.

Piano agents have been drumming the town in a lively manner lately. These parties represent different houses in Port Huron which are in strong competition, and in consequence these Knights of gall and gass have frequent clashes of the "Killkenny Cat" variety. Monday evening one one of these fellows called on one of our prominent business men and found the family, with some neighbor callers, sitting on the veranda. Leaning his weary frame against one of the supports, he at once opened up an eloquent argument, showing his competitor to be one of the biggest rascals on the face of the earth, without honor, responsibility or anything else, when lo!—cold water, in a figurative and litteral sense also, was thrown on his glowing eloquence by some unfeeling persons, (we think they were bad boys,) up stairs which caused him to murmur as he hastened away with dampened ardor, "I must have been so fresh, that they took me for a kid and tried to christen me."

Last Friday was a great day in Canada, being Orangeman's day.

The circuit court will be in session July 22nd to hear court cases only.

The cherry crop this year is larger than has been known for several years.

The merchants have extended the time of closing their business to 12 o'clock.

Gathering red raspberries has been the rage for the last week. They seem to be quite plentiful this season.

A bunch of flax 4 ft. long was brought to this office this week by L. V. Ferguson. It is a fine sample.

The Capac Journal is two years old with its last issue. The editors think it's a pretty healthy infant and "them's our sentiments too."

The Secretary of Yale Agricultural Society will be at this place on Saturday afternoons during the month of July to pay last year's premiums.

It is said that wooden buggy and carriage wheels will be things of the past in the course of a few years. The steel wheel it is claimed, being certain to supplant it.

Stephen Barr, living a short distance out of the village, is building a large addition to his barn which he intends using for a drive shed. It is 20x11 feet in size.

As it will soon be threshing time Chas. Parker has secured the services of a new man. He arrived in town on Tuesday and weighs 9 pounds. Charley will commence training him at once.

The M. E. church social last Wednesday evening, at E. R. Beecher's lawn, was a decided success. A large number were present and enjoyed a good time. Receipts for the evening were $16.75.

An exchange says that buckwheat flour sifted on currant and gooseberry bushes in the early morn, when the dew is on, will effectually destroy currant worms and save the bushes from the ravages of the pests.

Rev. Cole, of Goodland occupied the M. P. Church pulpit last Sabbath evening, in place of Rev. J. M. Crandall who was absent. The gentleman delivered an excellent discourse which was well appreciated by a large congregation.

The little Bill: A man who is owing us a little bill said that he would call last week and pay us if he was alive. He still appears on the street, but as he did not call, it is naturally supposed that he is dead and is walking around to save funeral expenses. "Please omit flowers."

About the first thing a young man ought to do after getting married is to take a newspaper. He might as well think of keeping house without knives and forks and spoons as without a paper, and the more papers he takes and pays for, the better will he get on in the world.

J. M. Loose Red Clover Co.:—I have used your fluid Extract Red Blossoms, prescribed by Dr. A. I. Sawyer, Monroe, Mich., and have received great benefit from the same, after having suffered a great deal for years. Respectfully, Helen C. Milliam, Rockwood, Mich. For sale by W. N. McKenna.

D. R. Brown or "Little Dave" as he is commonly known around this burg, who is now located at Deckerville, Sanilac county, and engaged in the mercantile business has been made the recipient of a treasure, worth we suppose many thousand dollars—his wife last Sunday, having give birth to a bouncing lassie weighing 10 lbs. The cigars this way Dave.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Elder J. H. Paton, of Almont, will preach in the new brick chapel of the Church of Christ, also in the evening at 7:30. This society is always pleased to have those attend their meetings who are competent to criticise, and manly enough to do their own thinking. There are always subjects discussed having a tendency to lead thinking people out of the old ruts and foolish traditions of the absurd and contradictory theologies of the present day. Hear for yourselves friends, leave prejudice at home. Come out.

Last Wednesday evening while driving a short distance nort of Brockway the horse of W. F. Ballentine, of Port Huron, became unmanageable and threw Mr. B. and wife out of the buggy shaking them up considerably but doing no serious damage. The same horse a few evenings later while being driven by H. S. Ballentine took the "Jim-jams" again and this time tried to use up Port Huron's popular Baptist minister, Rev. S. A. Beman, who was riding with Mr. Ballentine. The Rev. gentleman was thrown out of the buggy stribing on his head. It is said that there was no damage done excepting a slight injury to the pavement.

W. H. Palmer and family spent Friday last at the lake.

Lara Butler lost his arm 25 years ago the 11th of this month.

The Marine City Reporter's issue of last week gives a review of that city.

Frank Newell, our popular carriage and sign painter is having a fine run of business.

Mrs. Thomas Keyworth brought to ye editor's office Saturday three or four quarts of the nicest cherries we have seen this season. His family return thanks fsr the treat.

There is no drink quite so delicious and sparkling, pure and wholesome, as that made from Hires' Improved Root Beer Packages. Did you ever try it? It is one of the good things of this life.

Work on the new branch of the F. & P. M. R'y between this place and Port Huron is progressing finely. When fiuished, this will be one of the finest pieces of road in the state, nine miles of the same being straight as a bee line.

J. M. Loose Red Clover Co., Detroit. —Gents: I commenced taking your Extract Red Clover two years ago, for erysipelas, and have not been troubled since. It is hereditary with me. Think you have the best blood medicine known. Yours truly, W. M. Seibert, Toledo, O. For sale by W. N. McKenna.

An exchange tells of an Ohio man who mortgaged his farm to get his wife a pair of earrings. The wife took in washing from the summer boarders to pay the interest on the mortgage, and the first day lost one of the diamonds in the suds and tried to hang herself in the barn, but the rope broke and she fell on a $150 Jersey calf and broke its back.

If any additional evidence was necessary to establish beyond the shadow of adoubt that Civil Service Reform is the most gigantic humbug on the face of the earth, the missing link was furnished by the examination held at the Customs House in this city on Thursday, under the auspices of the local Civil Service Commission. From beginning to end the examination was a ridiculous farce.—Port Huron Commercial.

The New York Herald as it appeared on the morning after Lincoln's assassination twent-four years ago; a great curiosity and keepsake, containing full accounts of Lincoln's assassination; the attack upon Secretary Seward; Jeff Davis' last proclamation; Lee's surrender to Gen. Grant; and all the thrilling and interesting war news of that period; a great relic and read by everybody; six cents per copy. For sale bp C. H. Niggeman.

John A. Vannest a well known and highly esteemed merchant of Brown City, Mich., after a severe struggle with advere circumstances over which he had no control, at last yielded to what seemed inevitable, and made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors to Jas Brown, of Yale, who immediately filed his bonds and necessary papers and accepted the trust, taking possession of goods and premises. One of the largest creditors, however, being advised foolishly by a brainless lawyer, of Port Huron, nad the sheriff break into the premises on Saturday night and take forcible possession, and with the aid of a crazy clerk of the firm in Port Huron held possession until Monday evening, when better counsel advised them to vacate the premises, leaving Mr. Brown in quiet posession. Mr. Vannest hes the sympathy of the entire community, and more especially as within a few years he had the misfortune to be burned out, losing at least $3,000, leaving him almost penniless to begin life anew.

The following we clip from the Morley Advance: The newly furnished home of Dr. C. V. High, on Cass street, was at 7.30 o'clock on last Saturday evening the scene of a happy event—the celebration of the nuptials of the popular young medecine man and Miss Florence E., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sams. The ceremony which united the worthy coupie was pronounced by Rev. E. F. Newell, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of a small company of immediate relatives. Among these were Mrs. B. H. McMullen of Cadillac, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sams of Reed City. After the usual extension of congratulations and viewing of presents, the happy pair left on the south bound train for a brief trip, returning Monday. The Dr. came to Morley something over a year ago and began the practice of his profession. By his skill and gentlemanly bearing he has already won a large practice and wide friendship. His bride is well known, having resided here most of the time for a number of years past. She was indeed a prize worth winning The Advance offers its sincerest congratulations.
